Books and Breakfast Coordinator at Freedom Inc.

Reports To:

Youth Justice Director

About Us:

Freedom, Inc. (FI) is a queer feminist non-profit that organizes within low to no-income Black and Southeast Asian women and girls, gay, lesbian, transgender, intersex, and other queer folk.

Our mission is to achieve social justice through the coupling of direct services with community organizing. Through leadership development, community mobilization, and advancing community control measures, we will bring about social, political, cultural, and economic change, resulting in the end of violence against women, gender-non-conforming folks and youth within our communities.

Freedom, Inc. works to dismantle the root causes of violence, poverty, racism and discrimination. Our belief is that people who are most affected by these issues must have voice, power, resources and choice, in order for true social change to happen.

Program Description:

Books and Breakfast is a summer program for Black and Southeast Asian elementary aged youth. Young people enjoy a healthy breakfast and mind lifting books. They also enhance literacy, learning, and life skills as they emerge as young liberatory leaders in our communities.

The program was developed in the spirit of the Black Panther Party's Free Breakfast program. Click here to learn about the ways the Black Panther Party revolutionized political education and service providing
